5. Answer the following questions briefly.

(1) How does Mrs. Slater plan to outshine the Jordan's? What does it reveal about her character?

Ans: Mrs. Slater was not very happy with the mourning dresses that she and her family were wearing. In fact, she had ordered new dresses for everybody. However, she thought that her sister wouldn't have thought of mourning dresses and she would outshine them there. Mrs. Slater was a very superficial person. She was not concerned about the death in her family but was more bothered about her appearance.

(2) Why does Mrs. Slater decide to shift the bureau from grandfather's room before the arrival of the Jordan's? How does Henry react to the suggestion?

Ans: Mrs. Slater always liked grandfather's bureau. After his death, she decided to shift it to sitting room before her sister arrived lest she laid a claim on it. Henry was shocked at the suggestion because he felt that the sisters should amicably divide grandfather's things. He also felt that it was too heavy and was worried about the arrival of the Jordan's while they were shifting it.

(3) What is the reason for the Jordan's taking a long time to get to the house of the Slater's? What does it show about the two sisters' attitude towards each other?

Ans: Mrs Jordan took a lot of time to reach the home of the Slater's because she wanted to get a complete new mourning dress before coming. Both the sisters were not grief-stricken at the death of their father but were trying to out shine each other in wearing their best mourning dresses. For the sisters grief was to be depicted through mourning- dress and not through the feelings in one's heart.

(4) What does Mrs. Jordan describe as 'a fatal mistake'? What is the irony in the comment she makes on Mrs. Slater's defense?

Ans: Mrs. Slater sends for Dr Pringle as soon as she realises that grandfather is dead.

However, Dr Pringle could not come as he was out. It was this that Mrs. Jordan describes as a “fatal mistake”. According to Mrs. Jordan, grandfather could have been revived had Mrs. Slater sent for another doctor. It is this blunder on Mrs. Slater’s part that Mrs. Jordan describes as fatal.

(5) Ben appreciates grandfather saying 'its' a good thing he did'. Later he calls him a 'drunken old beggar'. Why does he change his opinion about grandfather?

Ans: Ben appreciated grandfather when he came to know that he had gone out to pay his insurance premium. However, when he got to know that he had not paid the premium instead gone to a public house, he calls him a drunken old beggar.

Ben changed his opinion about grandfather when he realised that he hadn’t paid premium because now after his death they could not claim the insurance money.

(6) What change does grandfather make in his new will? What effect does it have on his daughters?

Ans: Grandfather decided that in his new will, he would leave all his money and things to the person with whom he would be living with when he will be dead. This led to another spat between the daughters. Since both of them were very keen to get his money and things, they wanted that he should stay with them.

(7) What are the three things that grandfather plans to do on Monday next?

Ans: The three things that grandfather planned to do on Monday next was first to go to a lawyer and change his will, then pay his insurance premium and finally go to St. Phillip’s church and get married.

6. Answer the following in detail:

(1) Bring out the irony in the title of the play.

Ans: The title of the play 'Dear Departed' is ironical. In the beginning of the play, we come to know that grandfather Mr. Abel has departed from this world. He is not dear to his own daughters though they pretend that he is dear to both of them. They are eager to divide his belongings between them. Even Mrs. Slater with whom he has been living fetches his clock and bureau from his room where he is lying 'dead'. Even they can't wait for the last rites of his burial. Even their husbands Ben and Henry do not love grandfather. So, no one is grieved at his departure. In this way, we can say that the title of this play 'Dear Departed' is an ironical statement of dying love and absence of filial obligations.

(2) How does the spat between his daughters lead to grandfather discovering the truth?

Ans: Abel Merry Weather recognizes his bureau and wanted to know the reason for its shifting. Mrs Slater had already told her sister that the bureau belonged to them. This lie was enough to set tongues wagging and tempers escalating. Mrs Jordan accused her sister of stealing her father's things, thinking him to be dead. That is when Abel discovered that they had gathered there for the official mourning of his death.

(3) Compare and contrast Henry's character with that of his wife. Support your answer with evidence from the play.

Ans: Henry is timid and honest by nature. Soft at heart, he tends to get bullied by his dominating wife. Initially, he protests against stealing the grandfather's slippers and bureau but when Mrs Slater forces him, he gets carried away. He is a worried looking man who believed what his wife says and ends up supporting her. Mrs Slater by contrast is vain, pretentious and greedy.

7. Bring out the traits in Mrs. Slater's personality quoting evidence from the play.

Trait	Evidence from the play
Greedy
Overpowering/ dominating
Blunt/ straight talking
Impolite
Insensitive

Ans:

(b) How does Vicky conclude that her parents are 'pinching it'?

(c) Mention the two reasons that Mrs. Slater gives for her action.

(d) What does it reveal about the difference between the attitude of the elders and that of Vicky?

Ans: (a) “It” refers to the bureau that was in the grandfather’s room.

(b) When Victoria was told by her father that he and his mother were shifting the bureau downstairs, she concluded that her parents are “pinching it” because everything that was in grandfather’s room had to be equally divided amongst the two sisters.

(c) Firstly, she always like the bureau of grandfather. Secondly, she knows that her sister Elizabeth would not let her take it.

(d) The elders instead of mourning were busy dividing grandfather’s things. Victoria, on the other hand, had wisdom beyond her years. She immediately understood the meaning of their actions. She did not like her parents shifting the bureau.

2. "I don't call that delicate, stepping into a dead man's shoes in such haste."

- (a) Who makes this comment?
- (b) What prompts the speaker to say this?
- (c) Bring out the significance of this statement.

Ans: (a) Mrs. Jordan made this comment.

(b) When grandfather sees Henry wearing it, Mrs. Slater quickly gives them back to him. This prompts Mrs. Jordan to make this comment.

(c) Stepping into dead man's shoe is to take the position of the dead man although one might not be capable of it. Mrs. Jordan on seeing her brother-in-law wearing grandfather's shoes feels that he was in too much of a hurry to step into the grandfather's shoes. He didn't even wait for his funeral.

22:00

Today is the worst day of my life, when Grandpa was supposed to have passed away. I am deeply shocked at the behavior of my parents, who were pinching the belongings of my Grandpa. Imagine no one even went to look up for Grandpa. I know Grandpa was not happy living with us, I tried my best but my mom never listens. Even my dad supports her. I am so ashamed to see their hypocrisy. I don't know how they will expect respect from me, when they have behaved so abominably. I pity my Grandpa for this treatment. Oh! how I wish I was grown up enough to look after him.

Victoria.
